

Fisherman's Bend

The Fisherman's Bend is very similar to a round turn with two half hitches. The difference is that when tying the fisherman's bend the first part of the first half hitch goes through the loops formed by the round turn locking it in place. This knot is more secure than a round turn with two half hitches.

